Technology Student of the Month

My student of the month is Nevaeh Bailey in Mrs.

Quashie's 3rd-grade class. She has been so responsible during various learning practices. I am so proud of how dedicated and respectful she has been in technology class. She has shown great work ethic and perseverance during typing assignments.

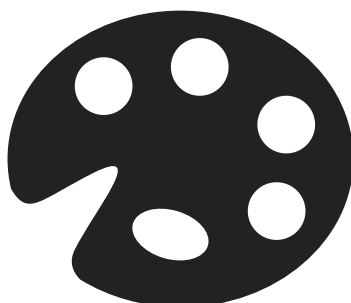

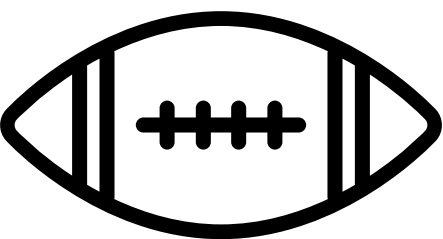

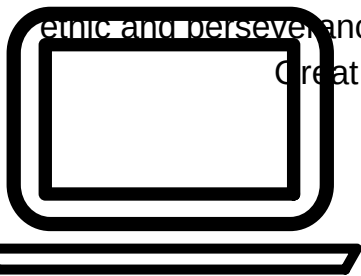

Great Job Nevaeh!!

Student of the Month

My student of the month is Caylie Jones.

Caylie is consistently honest when asked about the class behavior. She shows that she is able to take responsibility for her action when the class are having an off day. Caylie is great example for her peer. Caylie Jones, You Rock!!

Art News:

In the 2nd quarter students will continue studying artwork from other cultures in preparation for International Day. We will be focusing on the countries that their homeroom teachers choose. We will also be creating artwork for a showcase that will be displayed for International Day. We hope that you will come visit and join us on January 24th. We will also be completing seasonal projects and Holiday projects.

Art Student of the Month

The art student of the month is Kohdey Curbean. I am so pleased to have seen growth in Kohdey this year. She has definitely shown improvement in being an honest person. Kohdey is trustworthy and reliable. I can count on Kohdey to tell the truth when it comes to herself and situations around her. It takes a mature person to be that way. Congrats!
